STOCK COMING TO

There are now being tested in the vestock sale pavilion of the stockyards at Kansas City fifty head of thoroughbred cattle for shipment to the Hawaiian Islands will some day be on a map as a cattle country says the El Paso, Texas, Times of July 24.

About half the shipment are Herefords, and the balance are divided among Shorthorn, Angus and Holsuitable to head herds, but among the number are some cows, calves and heifers. They were almost all brought from breeds in Missouri, Kansas and in the islands. On account of the hot weather, it has been impossible to test the cattle as yet, and as the government regulations concerning the shipment of cattle to Hawaii are very strict, they have been held until too late to ship them on the boat first chosen. Unless there is unforeseen delay, the cattle will leave Kansas

ESTABLISH AIRSHIP

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

HILO, Aug. 4 .- Tom Gunn, the Chinese aviator who has been giving flying exhibitions at Schofield Barracks on Oahu, arrived here yesterday morning on the Mauna Kea and is trying to interest local Chinese in an airship factory company to be started in China. A meeting to discuss the matter was held last night. The most influential Chinese attended and a number of them agreed to take shares would never have heard anything about the ingenuity of the French antiquarian if he had not failed to pay a commission to his acquaintance who obtained the certificate of its origin. The acquaintance won his case and received $2000 out of the $4600 paid by the German purchaser, while the French antiquary was fined $20.

According to plaintiff's lawyer, the Arab glass has been steadily increasing in value since it reached Germany. It has been valued at $8000 by various experts, and a collector is now ready to purchase it for $12,000. K Takata L.
